

Comfort Socks Newsletter - March 2011 - Socks for the Homeless

Did you know that Comfort Socks serves over 40 homeless shelters and homeless programs across the United States? Please take a look at "Who We Help" page.

<http://comfortsocksonline.org/whohelp.asp> This month, although we did have any new sock recipients, be assured we are still busy at work boxing up socks to send to the shelters we faithfully serve.

A Word from Our Founder

Comfort Socks has always been a mission of faith, in that every pair of socks we give to homeless shelters or the homeless programs we sponsor, we just believe that the sock recipient is going to receive the comfort we long to provide. We do not need to see the fruits of our labors to know we are effective.

When the new year started, I had a feeling that 2011 was going to be the year of the children for us, and now I know my hunch was right. Just look at the children and child friendly organizations that are stepping up to support the Comfort Socks mission. We are proud to be a way for the youth of America to express their love and caring for others who are hurting and misplaced. You will recall that January started the year off with Generations Church in Southport stepping up with an outstanding sock drive. Now please read on about the youth and partnerships that inspire youth that we have connected with since then. Please always remember how important you are to our mission.

Sincerely,
Theresa Tese

Based in Dallas, Texas, Lemons to Aid is on a mission to use the simple, but memorable experience of hosting lemonade stands to instill the mindset of service and charitable giving in children at a young age. Together, our organizations have formed "The Lemon Crew". We are confident the Lemon Crew will encourage children of all ages to collect new crew socks, while selling lemonade, cookies, or hosting a sock puppet show. Membership in the Lemon Crew is FREE. This group of fine young adults (pictured right) collected 125 pairs of socks, bound them in bunches of 5 pairs each, wrapped them in bandanas each handwritten with scripture. We are so proud of them and hope to more work with them in the near future.

Comfort Socks and the Care Bears Connect

Say hello to our newest friends, the Care Bears. The Care Bears is a group of five 7th grade students from San Diego, CA. As part of their humanities school project, these fine young people have chosen to help the homeless in Downtown San Diego by providing them with care packages. Back in Feb, the group contacted Comfort Socks with some questions – and after a few email exchanges – it became clear to me that the heart of these young people will be a great comfort to those they touch. And it is the desire of Comfort Socks to show the world what some effort with good-spirited heart can do. We are grateful to know the Care Bears and appreciate that they have let us share their story with our Comfort Socks family.

So far, the Care Bears have planned out the contents of their care bags, and are working on ways to purchase or receive donations of the care bag items themselves. The Care Bear members have put up collection bins, are in the process of asking Target about a sponsorship, are planning on holding a night at one of the local restaurants in their community where a percentage of the bill goes to their project. They have accomplished getting their local elementary schools involved and with students making a cheerful pieces of artwork with something inspiring written on, and cards of hope, sure to brighten the day of those who receive a care bags from the Care Bears group. I know one thing for sure, the Care Bears have brightened my day, just by seeing their caring works in action. Keep up the great work, Care Bears, and perhaps in the future we may hear of you joining the Comfort Socks family of sock collectors.

A Great Big Thank You to Our Sock Collectors

Thanks to the cheerful crew of 2 Waffle House locations - the socks kept coming in even after the February event ended. Pictured here are some of Leland Waffle House employees, who brought in the most socks for the campaign. Waffle House will be hosting another sock event in May or June.

Thanks to the efforts of Leslie Bennett- 73 pairs of excellent quality socks were collected from the generous folks at Arbor Creek plantation. Now 73 people will have the comfort and warmth of new socks.
